INNER LIFE

DEDICATION

Among the first of the college personnel with whom a new student makes acquaintance is Dr. Charles E. Koerble, Dean of Faculty.

Dr. Koerble confers with each freshman and explains how understandings gained from his entrance test results will affect the student's college career and his course of study at NWMSC. All of this he does in a friendly, earnest way so that the student leaves the Dean's office knowing that if he ever needs the thoughtful advice of one wiser and more experienced than himself, he can turn to Dr. Koerble.

Dr. Koerble joined the NWMSC administrative staff in 1954 in the capacity of Counselor of Students. Two years later he became Dean of Faculty. Finishing his third year in this new capacity, he has not only accepted the duties of Dean of Faculty, but he has continued to carry a number of the responsibilities connected with his counseling. Only a man with his vitality and love of working with people could take the responsibilities of both positions in his stride—but Dr. Charles E. Koerble does—and is a success in both.

To this man the staff dedicates the 1959 TOWER.

President's Message

I am impressed with the scope of the 1959 TOWER. My message to you follows the pattern of the Tower.

MIND: "Since wars begin in the minds of men, it is in the minds of men that the defenses of peace must be constructed." Constitution of UNESCO.

These lines from the first Proverb of Solomon:

"To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

To give subtlety to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; but fools despise wisdom and instruction."

FELLOWMEN: The association of our fellowmen on this college campus is reflected in the no longer used second stanza of our Alma Mater:

All the days we've been together
Fondly we recall;
Days of fair and stormy weather,
Thou hast gladdened all.

MEMORABLE MOMENTS: *"Now comes the hour when we must say farewell
And let familiar things fall softly down
Into the half-twilight where memories dwell
With rich associations . . ."*

— Robert Flowers, A. B. 1943

In the 1959 TOWER some of these "rich associations" are pictured and should help you relive these memorable moments.

PHYSICAL FEATS: Baron Pierre de Coubertin, who was the founder in 1894 of the modern Olympic games, made the following statement of the basic Olympic principles,

"The important thing in the Olympic games is not to win but to take part. The important thing in life is not the triumph but the struggle. The essential thing is not to have conquered but to have fought well. To spread these precepts is to build up a stronger and more valiant and, above all, more scrupulous and more generous humanity."

INNER LIFE: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

"My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth."

— Psalm 121: 1, 2.

The women of Residence Hall in their beautiful and significant Hanging of the Greens each Christmas put it this way,

"In olden times there was a legend that on Christmas Eve the little Christ Child came again to the earth, looking for homes in which He might be a guest. Those who would invite Him set a lighted candle in the window to show Him the way and to welcome His coming. In memory of this, we invoke thee, Spirit of Christmas, to place our lighted candles where they will shine to tell all who come that this is the House of Friendliness and that He is our guest."

I trust that you have experienced life on this campus that will make these ideas and ideals meaningful for you. The 1959 TOWER should help you relive these experiences.

DEAN'S MESSAGE

"No one can put the same foot in the same stream twice." This rough paraphrase of a Chinese proverb brings forcefully to mind the inevitability of change. The stream and the foot are not twice the same. Remember how different the high school crowd seemed to get after you arrived on this campus? Every generation has a right to point to significant changes which took place, some generations more so than others. It would seem that your generation is fraught with peculiar and serious changes which are possibly more significant than ever before: the atomic bomb, a seemingly endless cold war, economic 'insurances,' jet transportation, space travel, electronic advances, automation, to mention a few. How well prepared are you for the changes that have occurred and will ensue? Adjusting to change is a continuous process: "The only adjusted person is dead." As college trained individuals I wish for you the intelligent behavior which best utilizes the results of change and which accepts its inevitability.

UNION BOARD

Co-ordinated by President Bob Owens, the Student Senate has finished another busy year of providing leadership for the growing number of students of this campus.

First on the agenda was the return of all senators to the campus, one week prior to upperclass registration for the purpose of orientating the freshmen. Senators aided in administering orientation tests, acted as assistants to the faculty members at freshmen mixers, and participated in various panel discussions throughout the week.

Other Senate activities included conducting freshman initiation, securing judges for the selection of Homecoming Queen finalists, the initiation of last year's proposed Student Court and Student-Faculty Disciplinary Committee, the presentation of the Student Directories to the student body for the first time, the publication of the new Student Handbook and Constitution, the selection of the Who's Who Committee, and the supervision of campus elections.

This year the Union Board has sponsored activities of social, educational, and recreational value. An effort has been made to provide a diversified calendar for the interest of all students.

The social program was highlighted by the All-School Christmas Ball, Tower Dance, and Spring Hop. Monday night informal dances, after-the-game dances, and other Union dances were all included to complete the social calendar.

Four members of the board attended the annual regional convention of union boards at Cornell College, Mount Vernon, Iowa. Attending were Harlan Higginbotham, Union Board president; Don Kixmiller, treasurer; Ron Kixmiller, movies and TV chairman, and Jack Ballinger, dance committee chairman. Mr. Harry Bowes, co-sponsor of the board, accompanied the delegation.

Other activities which students enjoyed were Bridge Club, coffee hours, tournaments, high fidelity music, forums, excursions, and movies.

SIGMA SIGMA

Rush Week began with usual Tri Sigma enthusiasm at the Monte Carlo informal rush party. Sixteen new faces were added to the roll of Sigma Sigma Sigma and were trained for membership by Delivee Cramer.

"Green White and the Eleven Bearcats," Tri Sigma's skit for the Variety Show during Homecoming, was well-received and won third place. Sigma Sigma Sigma's hard work during Homecoming rewarded them a second place tie for contribution to the parade. Their entries were the humor float, "Make 'Em Squirm," the beauty float, "Vic-

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

Delta Nu chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon began its fifth year on campus with an attitude of confidence in the future based on accomplishments in the past.

Under the leadership of rush chairman Bob Williamson, the chapter pledged its fall semester pledge class.

For the men of Delta Nu chapter, the high point of Homecoming was the election of frater Ken Jacobs to the post of Homecoming chairman, a position he shared with Darlene Vonderschmidt of the sister sorority, Alpha Sigma Alpha.

Dinner was served to 55 members, their dates, and invited guests at the Christmas Dinner Dance. The spring season was highlighted by the Teke Sweetheart Dance in May.

Yuletide brought with it the heartwarming experience of the annual Teke Orphan's Party. Children of the Noyes Home in St. Joseph were all-day guests of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and the Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority. Members brought the 31 children to Maryville where they attended church services, followed by dinner in the reserved dining rooms of the Student Union.

HOMECOMING COMMITTEE

The Assembly Committee, comprised of a group of students and faculty members, directed the presentation of many enjoyable assembly programs throughout the 1958-59 school year.

Traditional assemblies which were presented included the opening assembly, the music and speech department Christmas assembly, the Religious Emphasis Week assemblies, and the Honors Day Assembly.

Special programs given included guest speakers and entertainers such as The Canadian Players, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Dwight Cooke, Henry Scott, and W. L. Shirer.

The most widely acclaimed speaker was Mrs. Roosevelt, who spoke before a standing-room-only audience.

To make it possible for everyone to have an opportunity to attend assemblies, the Assembly Committee is working on the rearrangement of assembly hours, with the tentative plan of using some evening dates.

Each year Homecoming becomes a bigger and better event on campus and 1958 was no exception. Under the leadership of Dr. John Harr, faculty advisor; Darlene Vonderschmidt and Ken Jacobs, and other members of the Homecoming Committee, assignments were made, plans were organized, and the gala event got under way. Preparations for the day included arrangements for the dance, highlighted by the presentation of Queen Joan Hall before a capacity crowd.

The committee chairmen were as follows: Tickets, Jim Tussey and Beverly Lyle; dance decorations, Bob James and Peg Riley; campus decorations, Joyce McCoole and Pat Cottrell; publicity, Joyce Barnes and James Holmes; queen contest, Bob Owens and Dick Hargrave; variety show, Don Riley and Carolina DeBow; parade, James McIntyre and Bill Simmons; signs and posters, Nancy Merrick; business manager and purchasing agent, Don Beeson; parade judges' stand, Bill Joyner; band hosts and hostesses, Richard Dowell; pep rally, Ron Kixmiller; program, Karen Blake, and variety show ushers, Marci Sena.

Members of the Northwest Missourian staff, in keeping with tradition, have successfully combined the principles of good journalism and complete news coverage for the student body, faculty, and subscribers.

The year 1958-59 marked the ninth consecutive year in which the Northwest Missourian has been awarded a first place certificate by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, of Columbia University, New York.

In May of 1958, the Missouri College Newspaper Association of the University of Missouri, Columbia, awarded the Northwest Missourian a gold plaque for being judged the best college newspaper of class A schools. The award was based on the 1957-58 issues edited by Joyce Barnes.

Miss Barnes, elected vice-president of MCNA at the awards luncheon in Columbia in May, 1958, and five other members of the staff attended the annual journalism workshop held in Columbia last October.

James Holmes, 1958-1959 editor; Joyce Barnes, assistant editor; and Miss Violette Hunter, adviser, with the aid of an enthusiastic and cooperative staff, have again published a well-organized newspaper.

Assisting the editor and the assistant editor were Robert Kruse, sports editor; Sheryl Lee Chambers, circulation manager, and Rosanne Lyle, advertising manager.

RESIDENCE HALL DORM COUNCIL

Six well-known upper class girls in Residence Hall this year were: Wanda Russell, ground floor; Janet Sanders, first floor; Sue Lynn and Marcia Williams, second floor; Patty Hinkle and Mary Anne Salfrank, third floor. These girls, who served as dorm counselors, were often seen turning the lights off and on, checking rooms, giving noise warnings, working at the desk, and staying around on weekends.

Lou Jane Taylor, night chaperone, had the duty of blinking the well-known five minute lights, closing the front door at the bewitching hour, recording black marks, and staying up late for girls who had late leaves.

The effectiveness of the work of these girls depended on the ever willing guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Luer, director of Residence Hall, and the assistant director, Mrs. Lucille Cuddy.

The friendship, advice, and aid of all of these people have helped to make the dorm a happy place to live.

Another year of fun-filled college life has been completed by the two hundred girls in Residence Hall. With the successful construction of Freshmen Hall only upper classmen returned to this dormitory! The Harvest Moon Dance, under the direction of Peggy Cox, marked the beginning of the social events.

Faculty, parents, and friends were guests at the traditional "Hanging of the Greens" Christmas ceremony. Delivee Cramer was chosen "Spirit of Christmas" with Darlene Vonderschmidt, Marilyn Cox, Sybil Sims, Lovell Hunziger, Marcia Williams and Mildred Drake as Bearers of the Green. Mildred Drake and Margaret Boyd acted as co-chairmen of the event.

Other highlights during the year included open house, dorm parties, senior send off, and weekly devotion services.

FRESHMAN HALL COUNSELORS

The Freshman Dorm counselors moved into their new rooms and undertook their duties with enthusiasm. A new building with many new friendships to be made with the Freshman girls lay ahead of them.

First to be occupied were the third and fourth floors with Counselors Gloria Jackson and Ardith Linn, Mary Lou Boeck and Marsha Crowell, in charge. Several weeks later the entire building was completed. Sharon Kolhof and Pat Cottrell were counselors on the first floor and Marilyn Cox and Carolyn Cummings were on the second. Pat also served as night chaperone.

The duties of counseling and keeping Freshman hours provided new experiences for the eight girls.

Mrs. Helen Larsen, director of Freshman Hall, worked closely with the counselors of each floor, and soon the organization of the dorm was completed. Her guidance helped many a Freshman girl and counselor work out their difficulties.

The Freshman Dorm Council is an entirely independent organization composed of two representatives chosen to serve from each floor of the newly constructed dorm. This year's members were Edith Moats, Thelma Gerdes, Merle Imamoto, Linda Jones, Janell Miller, Sara Beth Kurtz, Shirley Haas, and Loretta Farmer. Officers were Mary Harris, president; Jeanne Kramme, vice-president; Linda Jones, secretary, and Janell Miller, treasurer. Mrs. Helen Larsen is the Freshman Dorm director.

The highlight of the year was the "For This We Thank You" party given by the freshman girls for Residence Hall girls.

On each floor there were two floor chairmen and two AWS representatives. The floor chairmen were Sandra Dudgeon, Sue Crone, Mary Ann Jones, Beth Tasler, Betty Ambrose, Ruth Emmeck, Karen Miller, and Loretta Farmer. AWS representatives were Muriel Schrooten, Paula Jarrett, Connie Johnson, Rose Schlie, Deanna Bebo, Carol Johnson, Carolyn McNeely, and Sandra Krokstrom.

MEN'S RESIDENCE COUNCIL

Associated Women Students is a new organization on the campus for the purpose of uniting women students of the campus and enabling them to speak and act as the united voice of the women on campus.

The AWS hopes to foster friendliness and leadership among college women to prepare them for their future role in the community and the world at large and will endeavor to regulate the conduct of women students and to enforce regulations that do not come under the jurisdiction of the constitution of the Dean of Women or Student Governing Body.

The AWS has carried out a well-planned program for its first year by selling blotters that included a year's calendar of events on campus, by featuring a style show for the freshmen, by sponsoring three "Penny Nights," and by sending delegates to the National Conference of AWS in the spring.

Another important activity of the AWS is that of the Bear Cub which is under the leadership of Marsha Crowell.

Early in the first semester representatives from all the quads met to form a Quad Council, which was renamed the Men's Residence Council. The purpose of such an organization is to better unite the men of the quads in order to promote better fellowship and understanding.

Advisers to the Council were Mr. Lon Wilson, dean of men; Mr. Harry Bowes, assistant dean of men; and Mr. Ted Baldwin, householder of Quad 2.

The representatives from the respective quads include Garry Lunsford, Quad 1; Royce Smith and Sam Porter, Quad 2; Don Eklund and Ed Scarlett, Quad 3; Ken Jacobs, Quad 4; Calvin Allwood, Quad 5; and Junior McLaughlin and Mike Tomlin, Quad 6. In the new quad, the representatives are Don Frazier, first floor; Joe Davis, Dick Rowland, and Larry Gardner, second floor; John Amabile, Bob K. PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

The college Pan-Hellenic Council of the National Pan-Hellenic Conference began its activities with the Pan-Hellenic Tea for all girls interested in joining a sorority.

The Tea was followed by the Fall Rush Week of coke dates and informal and formal parties. The rushees were entertained at the informal parties as they looked back into the Gay Nineties, across the ocean to an Oriental theme, and then went to the Monte Carlos. Fifty-seven enthusiastic pledges entered the Pan-Hellenic world.

The Pan-Hellenic Council held a mass meeting to present each sorority's new pledges. The meeting was presided over by Marcia Rucker, president. She explained to the pledges the purpose of the Pan-Hellenic Council.

Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority for the seventh year received the scholarship cup, which is presented to the sorority with the highest grade point average. This sorority gained permanent ownership of the traveling cup, as they have won it for three consecutive years.

The Inter-Fraternity Council, coordinator of the activities of the three national Greek social fraternities on campus, regulates the spirit of friendly rivalry among the fraternities, and promotes fraternity life on campus.

The Council changed the setting of dates for pledging and rushing in accordance with the revised rushing section of the Inter-Fraternity Constitution. Plans were also put in motion for the establishment of an Inter-Fraternity Sing during the Christmas season.

In the spring the Council, along with the Pan-Hellenic Council sponsored the annual All-Greek Dance. Dance committee members were Chuck Stadler, Dick Carl, Jerald Dallam, and Jim Mitchell.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

The 1958-59 school year has been a record year for the intramural program. Interest has been increasing in intramural sports the last few years and has reached a new peak this year with the added enrollment.

The Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity won the 1957-58 intramural supremacy trophy by gathering the most points throughout the year in all sports. They won the following activities: touch football, tennis, basketball, free throw, volleyball, badminton singles and doubles, wrestling, softball, and the track meet. The swimming meet was won by the Independent Club. Phi Sigma Epsilon was second to the Taus in total points for the year with the Tekes a distant third.

Tennis started the program with individual first place going to John Bregin. There was a record participation in football of twenty-five teams. Wrestling next made its appearance with another record turnout and some fine performances. Basketball proved most popular with forty teams representing nearly 400 male students.

This year the Women's Intramural Council planned a program with a variety of athletic activities for women students of the campus.

Heading the list of activities was basketball. Ten teams participated in the round robin tournament with games played each Monday and Tuesday. Bobbie Beger was tournament chairman.

Next on the program was bowling with Edith Eckhoff as chairman. Each Thursday at 4:00, the girls went to the bowling alley to participate in a round robin tournament. Eight teams were entered in this tournament.

In the spring, a round robin volleyball tournament was drawn up to round out the program. Heading this activity was Yvonne Edwards.

Co-chairmen of the Intramural Council were Betty Heflin and Lois Patton with Dr. Kathryn Riddle as the faculty sponsor.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Zeta Lambda chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, national honor society in education, had a busy year. As part of their duties, the pledges presented a series of panel discussions for the fall meetings.

Two of the programs were "Should the U. S. Recognize Red China" led by Madeleine Mongold and "Permissive Versus Corporal Punishment in the Elementary School" headed by Marsha Crowell.

At the Christmas party in December, the pledges provided entertainment and refreshments. The Charter Day Banquet in May was the final activity of the year.

A bibliofile contest was sponsored to encourage students to build their own libraries. Winners were announced at the Honors Assembly.

Officers for the year were Robert McCullough, president; Karon Blake, vice-president; Radene Eberle, secretary, and Marilyn Cox, treasurer.

Members meet twice monthly in the Lakeview Room.

Pi Omega Pi is a national honorary business education fraternity for future teachers in the business field. Entrance into the chapter requires that the student maintain a 2.0 grade average in business and education subjects.

Beta chapter of Pi Omega Pi began the year 1958-59 with nine active members. Six new members added to the chapter during the first semester were Etta Mae McClurg, Norma Davenport, Gwen Mayfield, Cecile Hoffman, Myrna Arms, and Mrs. Dortha Martin.

During the year, the chapter obtains one guest speaker from the teaching profession, and one from the business world. In November the group had as its business guest, Mr. Norvel J. Saylor, president of Lloyd Chain Corporation. His talk was entitled "Opportunities in Business for Young People." One field trip is planned each year, and various other activities are undertaken.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

Alpha Phi Omega, a service fraternity on the college campus, has as its main goal service to youth and the community, to the nation, and to the student body and faculty.

This year the fraternity refinished the identification signs in front of the buildings and also placed signs in front of the new building. Last year's project, helping a handicapped student to and from classes, was continued this year. Plaques for all the fraternities and sororities have been placed in the Bearcat Den by A. P. O. This year's pledges purchased plastic magazine covers for the magazines in the lounge of J. W. Jones Student Union.

One of the social events of the fraternity was an informal party at the home of the president, James McIntyre. A trip to the Missouri Ozarks was planned for the spring.

Officers for the second semester were: Dennis Mather, president; Ed Flannery, vice-president; Ed Herde, treasurer; Ron King, secretary; Bruce Wake, sergeant at arms; Leland Long, reporter, and Paul Shea, parliamentarian.

Alpha Psi Omega, honorary speech fraternity, consists of those students who have fulfilled certain requirements in regard to major and minor roles in college play productions.

Annually the speech fraternity presents a play as its project for the year. Another function which was started last year and continued this year is the presentation of awards to the student who has been outstanding in the field of acting and to the student who has contributed the greatest service to the speech department.

Through the year the various programs consisted of play reviews by honorary member Dr. Frank Grube and the faculty sponsor, Dr. Ralph Fulsom, and make-up sessions.

This year the members sent Del Smith, president, and Floyd Worley, vice-president, as delegates to the National Speech Convention in Chicago.

Members of Alpha Psi took part in various dramatic productions throughout the year. Dan DeMott, Floyd Worley, Del Smith, Ruth Curfman, and Eileen Rittmann were in "Teahouse of the August Moon."

FORENSICS

Intercollegiate debate for the 1958-59 forensic squad started in November with a novice tournament at Kansas State College. The squad fared well in another November meet, the Bradley University tournament, at Peoria, Ill. There excellent ratings were awarded to Larry Brown in debate and extemporaneous speaking, and to Sandy McMillan in after dinner speaking and discussion. Members of the squad participated in the Kirksville State Teachers College tournament in December.

NWMSO was host to colleges from three states for the second annual tournament in January. This year practice debates and local contests were inaugurated. To complete the season, the college was represented in tournaments at William Jewell, University of Nebraska and Missouri University. George Hinshaw was coach for the students.

Missouri Kappa chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic fraternity, was installed at NWMSO on November 14. Installing officers were Dr. Georgia Bowman, director of forensics at William Jewell college, and Rev. R. J. Imbs, from Rockhurst, governor of Missouri Province of Pi Kappa Delta.

Officers elected for the new chapter were: President, Larry Brown; vice-president, Bill Price; secretary, Roger Reith; treasurer, Harlan Larison; reporter, Sandy McMillan; parliamentarian, Tom Mooberry. Other student charter members are Gary Smith, Wayne Wells, Bob Sawyer, and Jim Taylor. Graduate charter members are Marjorie Canon, Paul Heavilin, Larry Ramsey, and Joan Setzer.

Chapter members participated in numerous forensic tournaments during the year. In March Kappa chapter was represented at the National Tournament at Bowling Green, Ohio, and was presented with its charter there.

KAPPA OMICRON PHI

Prospective members were invited to the annual fall weiner roast sponsored by Colhecon and Kappa Omicron Phi. New members were initiated and new officers were installed at the next meeting. Leading the homemakers were Carolyn Cummings, president; Ruth Ann Jests, reporter; Mary Eleanor Harris, treasurer, and Virginia Hall, secretary.

Highlights of the year were the Simplicity style show, Homecoming participation, decorating the home management house for Homecoming, the annual Christmas party, the Valentine party, and the spring style show.

Colhecon members sold boxes of candy during the Christmas season to finance their activities for the year. Thelma Long was the sponsor for the group.

Sixteen actives of Alpha chapter of Kappa Omicron Phi launched another year by holding the annual back-to-school picnic with Colhecon. Five from the group were able to attend the regional conference held at Hays, Kansas, during the summer and brought back to the group many new ideas.

Homecoming activities included a campaign for Miss Patty Hinkle, Kappa Omicron Phi's queen candidate, and work on the beauty float, "Flight to Dreamland," which received honorable mention.

Founders Day, Dec. 6, was observed by a coffee and a candle lighting ceremony. Tribute was paid to Miss Hettie M. Anthony, National Founder.

Alpha chapter welcomed Sarah Shaw, Bertha Turner, and Sybil Sims into the sisterhood as active members, and Jo Crawford and Phillis Nelson as pledges.

Kappa Omicron Phi was led by Miss Mabel Cook, sponsor, and Sandra Bill, president.

WRITERS' CLUB

Creative writers on campus and in the surrounding area meet as the Writers' Club to discuss and criticize manuscripts submitted. After the piece of work has been reviewed and discussed by the members, the writer often receives suggestions that improve his article. The club members have experimented with several types of writing.

Miss Mattie Dykes is the sponsor for this club, which has the distinction of being one of two such clubs on campus which have the same sponsor as when organized years ago. The members meet at the home of Miss Dykes.

Robert Hayden, president of the club, is the author of a poem, "To The Lover," published in the November, 1958, issue of Ladies' Home Journal. Other members are hoping to see their creative efforts in print.

Rounding out the list of officers were Richard L. Rose, vice-president, and Rose Mary Meyer, secretary.

The Drama Club, a new organization on campus this year, started the year with a buffet supper at the home of Mr. L. G. Bladt, sponsor.

The club named itself "Dramatures" and welcomed anyone interested in helping with or taking part in plays to become members.

The college chorus and the choir with the help of the Dramatures presented the Christmas Pageant written by Mr. Bladt. Several one act plays were also presented by the group.

Temporary officers were elected for the purpose of stabilization. They were: President, Dwight Grantham; vice-president, Phil Mattheis; secretary, Carolyn Cummings; treasurer, Paul Barker; and reporter, Delores Behrends.

AG CLUB

Members of the Industrial Arts Club began their schedule of activities by concentrating their efforts toward the designing and building of a beauty float for Homecoming. The float won second place in competition.

Major events of the year for the Industrial Arts Club were the annual trips to visit major industries in the Mid-West. The club made two trips to Kansas City. The first included visits to Fairbanks Morris, General Motors, and the Kansas City crime laboratory. The second trip was taken in March and included a visit to the Auto Show.

The club was under the direction of President Ken Jacobs and was sponsored by Mr. D. N. Valk, Mr. Kenneth T. Thompson, and Mr. Howard Ringold.

Homecoming was the first major item in the Ag Club's schedule of activities. Besides the annual alumni coffee hour, the Ag Club produced a first prize humor float, "Meat-en the Mules."

Several members of the club distinguished themselves in livestock judging contests throughout the year. Gene Anderson, Charlie Knorr, Tom Johnson, Gene Roe, and Larry Rosenbohm represented Northwest Missouri State at the Oklahoma City Intercollegiate Livestock Judging Contest. Gene Anderson proved his judging ability by winning the coveted Golden Bull. Bob Wade earned the Danner Achievement Award. These and other awards were presented at the Father and Son Award Banquet.

KAPPA PI

Formed in the spring of 1956, Kappa Pi, the honorary art fraternity on campus, is a young organization of three years.

In conjunction with the Art Club, this organization constructed a float for Homecoming. Later in the year, the chapter vice-president, Mrs. Marsha Combs, the faculty sponsor, Miss Olive DeLuce, and the assistant sponsor, Mrs. Virginia Dorman, were chosen to represent the local chapter at the annual Conclave at Pittsburg, Kansas.

Projects of the year included selecting the outstanding graduating senior and the outstanding freshman, both of whom must have either a major or minor in art. Last spring, Carol Gamble was chosen as the outstanding senior, and Nancy Merrick was given the freshman award, an engraved palate.

Original art work has been displayed in exhibits of senior members of Kappa Pi in the lounge of the art department.

This year pledges were initiated at the annual spring banquet, which brought to a close the year's activities.

"Phases of Art" was the general theme carried out in Art Club meetings this year. Program variety was gained by alternating both guest and student speakers with student participation sessions.

The first event on the club's agenda was a picnic honoring new members. Annual events, a visit to the Nelson Gallery of Art in Kansas City, other field trips, and the Christmas party, were also included in the club's schedule.

"Paint the Town, Bearcats" was the theme of the club's Homecoming float entry.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Olive S. DeLuce, the group was headed by Glenda Townsend, president; Nancy Merrick, vice-president; Dann Bachand, secretary; Peg Riley, treasurer, and Don Evans, program chairman.

NEA

The Student NEA, under the leadership of President Harold Wilkinson and sponsors Dr. Wanda Walker, Dr. Leon Miller, and Dr. Howard George, had its most successful year to date, with 118 members, which entitled the organization to six official delegates to the State Convention of SNEA in Kansas City, November 7, 1958. All of the sponsors and officers and about forty other members attended to see their candidate, Jackie Smith, elected as State SNEA President for the year 1959-60. Ray Fore, Vice-President of the local chapter, was elected State Treasurer, and Karen Crawford, local Social Chairman, was elected State Executive Board Member.

Ten members and Dr. Walker attended a State SNEA workshop at Columbia, Missouri, December

6, to plan for next year's program and activities. Dr. Walker is Adviser-Elect for the State. Another highlight of the year's activities was the annual tour to high schools in the district to present an Assembly Program in cooperation with members of the Progressive Jazz Band.

During the year the group sponsored an annual conference for high school FTA clubs, visited high schools to install FTA officers and explain the campus life of the college, presented an educational radio program directed by Marsha Crowell, organized and led an FTA departmental meeting in connection with the Northwest Missouri District Teachers meeting held each year, and prepared favors and table decorations for the Northwest Missouri District Classroom Teachers Banquet.

ACE

The Association for Childhood Education carried out an extensive, well-planned program around the theme, "We Look About Us To See What Children Need."

ACE members began the year with a scavenger hunt party for prospective members. After the formal initiation, pledging, and social tea, the group began work on the Homecoming project, which included house decoration and a float centered around the theme, "Fantasy Land." Marsha Crowell was the overall chairman for Homecoming and Garnet Rae Barkus represented the organization on the Homecoming committee.

In November the group held a creative workshop in the Industrial Arts Building under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ringold. At this time toys were made to give to needy children at Christmas time. In December the group had its annual Christmas party followed by caroling. The first semester's activities were brought to a close in January by a group discussion led by members of the organization for the guests of Northwest Missouri State Branch ACE members.

ACE sponsors, Miss Chloe E. Millikan and Miss Kathryn McKee, were the hostesses at a party for new members, which was the opening event of the second semester.

Other second semester highlights for the ACE members were a discussion led by Miss Barbara Wilson on the importance of interesting books, and other discussions dealing with the needs of children in the areas of music, spiritual guidance, and effective skills.

During the Easter vacation several members of the group went to the National ACE Conference held in St. Louis.

MENC

PEM Club has nearly doubled its membership this past year. Bonnie Magill, sponsoring the forty-eight members, and Mary Jane Bridgewater, president, made this a very eventful year.

With a fall picnic, PEM Club welcomed new members. Later in the spring, they honored graduating seniors at the annual Senior Picnic.

One of their work projects was a car wash, while one of the social highlights was the Christmas party.

Homecoming was enjoyed by the alumnae of PEM Club as they attended a coffee in Miss Magill's home. Many members were present to welcome the graduates back.

In the spring, members attended a state convention of AAHPER in Waterloo, Iowa.

With the start of the 1958-59 school year, Music Educators National Conference began its second year on campus. MENC is a national organization of school music teachers, both instrumental and vocal music.

Dr. John Smay and Miss Ruth Miller served as faculty sponsors for the group. Student leaders were President Karen Kinnick, Vice-president Charles Elliott, and Secretary Suzanne Anno.

The program committee was comprised of Shirley Noelck, Kathryn Clark Adams, Garry Jones, and Joel Pottinger. The programs consisted of guest speakers, projects, films, and demonstrations.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

Six foreign students have completed a year of education with their American classmates.

Byung Zin Bai, Seoul, Korea, is a junior majoring in business and minoring in English.

Nossrat Shilati, Tehran, Iran, is a junior. His major is agricultural engineering, and his minor is English. He is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon, Ag Club, and Writers' Club.

Nicholas Glynos is a freshman with a major in French and a minor in Spanish. Formerly of Paris, France, he is now living with his sister in Kansas City.

Evelyn Blatt, a freshman majoring in French, has her home in Asuncion, Paraguay. She is a member of the Association for Childhood Education and the Student Christian Association.

Mahmood Ahmadi, Tehran, Iran, is a senior with his major in agriculture and his minor in science.

Merle Imamoto is a freshman on campus from Hawaii.

Organized during the spring semester, 1958, the Veterans' Club performed very satisfactorily on a fairly small membership. During that same semester in the campus election with the largest turn-out to date, the club supported its candidate for student body president, Bob Owens, and boosted him into office.

With the beginning of the fall term, 1958, the club admitted approximately seventy-five veterans for membership. At the second regular meeting of that semester, the club elected its first permanent officers. Those inaugurated for their first lasting term were Edward Kennedy, president; Ken Stevens, vice-president; Ted Derks, secretary; and Joe Mewhirter, treasurer.

In the homecoming queen campaign, the Veterans' Club played an active part by backing Patty Hinkle, one of the top five candidates in one of the most active periods of campaigning in the college's history.

Men on campus who have earned an "M" in one of the varsity sports—football, basketball, baseball, wrestling, track, golf, and tennis—make up the "M" Club. This year the men were led by Charles Goff, hardwood star.

Freshmen early learned the significance of a green jacket bearing an "M." The members of the club were the enforcers of freshman initiation. The "M" Club president and the student body president rang the traditional bell to indicate that Walkout Day had arrived. The men presided over the Kangaroo Courts.

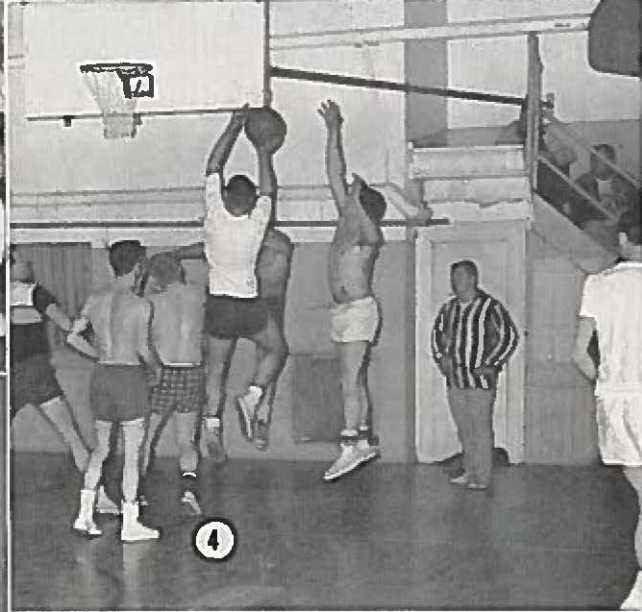

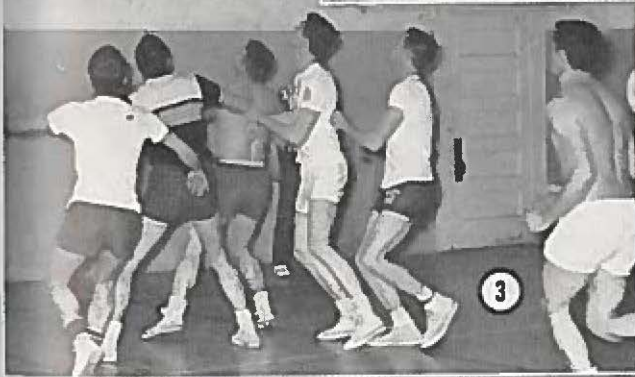

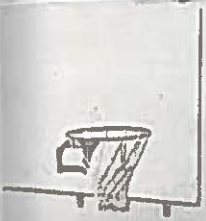

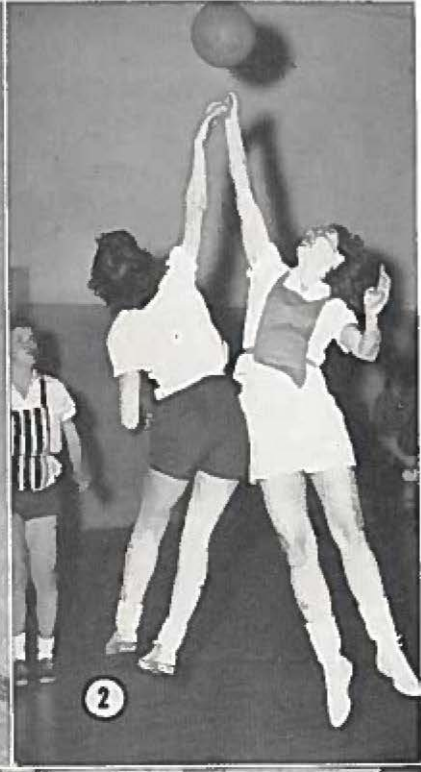

Members sold and collected tickets and checked activity cards at basketball games. They supervised the printing and selling of the football programs and operated the concession stand at sports events.

The club acted as host to high school teams at basketball tournaments in the college gym and at the high school track and tennis meets in the spring.

SCA

The Student Christian Association, under the leadership of President James McIntyre and Sponsors Dr. Irene Mueller and Dr. Joseph Dreps, centered the activities of the year around the theme, "What Is My Place in the Twentieth Century?" This theme was carried out in a number of discussion groups led by Ardith Linn and Stanley Rice.

Regular meetings throughout the year included the get-acquainted picnic in September, the Thanksgiving Banquet, Christmas caroling, the Easter Sunrise Service, and the year's end picnic at College Park.

Members of the Student Christian Association also participated in such special activities as the Thanksgiving Convocation, held at Residence Hall in conjunction with the college chorus, Religious Emphasis Week in March, and the Spring Convention at the Lake of the Ozarks.

The Newman Club is an organization composed of Catholic students with objectives "to deepen the spiritual and enrich the temporal lives of its members through a balanced program of social, religious and intellectual activities."

Some of the year's activities were picnics, mixers, Communion breakfast, attending conventions, and monthly meetings consisting of discussions, lectures, and question and answer periods. Several of the members served on various committees in planning Religious Emphasis Week.

Father Rich Saale of St. Patrick's Church was the Newman Club chaplain with Miss Anna Gorsuch and Mr. E. K. DeVore as co-sponsors. Providing leadership for the students were Nick Jacobs, president; Beverly Elliott, vice-president; Alice Koppold, secretary-treasurer, and Helen Bush, reporter.

Five members attended the regional convention of the central midwest region of Newman Clubs at Saint Scholastica College, Atchison, Kansas. Attending were Miss Gorsuch, Alice Koppold, Beverly Elliott, Patty Berg, and Rose Mary Meyer.

COLLEGE CHURCH GROUPS

College youth groups in several of the local Maryville churches have provided a means to NWMSC students for living richer, fuller spiritual lives. Many students of diverse faiths worshipped together and gained much from their fellowship.

The Baptist Student Union met at the First Baptist Church every Monday evening for a council meeting and every other Friday morning for a devotional dinner. The roll totaled 207. Officers for this year were Marilyn Cox, president; Ross Wells, vice-president; Nina Hopple, secretary; Ann Newcomer, enlistment chairman; Yvonne Edwards, devotional chairman; Robert K. James, social chairman, and Jody Newcomer and Bob Ogden, publicity. Don Evans was the student director in charge of the group. The Rev. Howard Judah is pastor.

Members attending Wesley Foundation at the First Methodist Church gathered at 5:30 Sunday for supper followed by a meeting at 6:00. Leaders of the group during 1958-59 were E. L. Reed, president; Joan Prichard, vice-president; Myrna Arms, secretary, and Ray Fore, treasurer. Enrolled in the group were 200 students, 60 of which were active members. The Rev. Ray Gass was the Methodist Church youth director and sponsor of the group. The Rev. Ralph Hicks is the minister.

Canterbury Club, the college group at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, did not meet regularly this year but next fall The Rev. Charles Sanders, pastor and chaplain of the Club, hopes that with added enlistment, regular sessions can be held. Fifteen active members met at the church Wednesday mornings at 7:00 for Holy Communion and breakfast.

The First Presbyterian Church offered Sunday School for the college students but the College Age Group met irregularly. The Rev. Robert Ceperley hopes that meetings can be resumed in the near future. Mrs. Laura Craig Murray was the director of the group. Students met Sundays at 5:30 for supper followed by a worship and discussion period.

The Epsilon Lambda Chapter of Gamma Delta International was open to NWMSC students at the Hope Lutheran Church. Gamma Delta met every second and fourth Sunday evenings of the month at Parish Hall. Officers were Ernest Mertz, president; Dwane Iwen, vice-president; Jackie Schrooten, secretary, and Rae Ann Nixon, treasurer. The Rev. Stephan J. Korinko is pastor.

The youth group for college students at the First Christian Church was the Disciples Student Fellowship. The members met at the church Sunday evenings at 5:00 followed by supper at 6:00. Members of the local chapter attended two state meetings during the year and the national conference, DSF Ecclesia. Larry Gray is student and youth worker. The Rev. George Barger is pastor. Lot Jane Taylor is DSF president.

IN MEMORIAM

LELAND CARTER

Many NWMSC students noticed something missing from their lives this year. Gone was the quick smile and attracting personality of Leland Carter. His absence from this campus was felt by all those who had ever met him. He died in the Harlan Hospital Sept. 8 as a result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident on Sept. 5.

LeLand first enrolled at this college in the fall of 1955 with a major in fine arts and a minor in English after having been graduated from Harlan High School that spring. Classified as a sophomore during the school year 1957-58, LeLand would have been in his fourth year here.

While in high school, LeLand was a member of Art Club and Hi-Y. Upon graduation he received the Louis Art Award.

Mr. and Mrs. LeLand Carter, Harlan, were his parents.
